

B.F.A. ART - M.A. MUSEUM ADMINISTRATION PATHWAY

Molloy College/
St. John's University
Arts & Sciences
Accelerated
Pathways
(ASAP)

Be Career-Ready in Five Years

Earn a B.F.A. in Art and an M.A. in Museum Administration in this five-year degree program. The School of Arts and Sciences at Molloy College and the St. John's University College of Liberal Arts and Sciences have teamed up to form an alliance that permits students to earn their Bachelor's degree from Molloy College and their Master's degree from St. John's University in an accelerated fashion.

As undergraduates, students will experience the personalized attention, affordable tuition and rewarding internships that Molloy College offers while preparing for an exciting graduate degree program at St. John's University.

To learn how it works—go to:
www.molloy.edu/pathways

Molloy College B.F.A. Art Program

The Molloy College Art Department welcomes students who are interested in completing an undergraduate degree, B.F.A. (Bachelor of fine Art) in Studio Art with a concentration in Drawing, Painting, Digital Art, Graphic Design, Photography, Ceramics, Sculpture or Art History. We offer minors in Art Therapy, Museum Studies, Digital Art, Graphic Design, Art History, Photography and Studio Art. Our small classes are taught by faculty artists and researchers with terminal degrees in studio art and art history. The professor's high levels of research scholarship and studio art practice provide students with a rigorous education.

For more information visit:
[https://www.molloy.edu/academics/
undergraduate-programs/art](https://www.molloy.edu/academics/undergraduate-programs/art)

B.F.A. ART – M.A. MUSEUM ADMINISTRATION PATHWAY

St. John's University M.A. Museum Administration

A master's degree in Museum Administration from St. John's University prepares you to enter the dynamic, fast-paced world of international and local cultural institutions. Upon graduation with your M.A. from St. John's University, you'll be well-suited for a wide range of museum specializations, including collections management, curation, exhibition management, marketing and development of cultural institutions, and museum education.

The degree will open doors leading to positions in art and history museums, historical societies, community art centers, and art galleries in New York City and cultural centers around the globe. Recent graduates of the Museum Administration program have completed internships with many prestigious and dynamic institutions.

For more information visit:

<https://www.stjohns.edu/academics/programs/museum-administration-master-arts>

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

School of Arts & Sciences

Dean Christopher Malone

T: 516.323.3433

E: artsandsciences@molloy.edu

To learn how it works-go to:
www.molloy.edu/pathways

Molloy
College

ST. JOHN'S
UNIVERSITY

