Mary Ann Petry
Selected works
March 10 – April 25, 2016

As part of Molloy’s 60th anniversary celebration The Frank and Gertrude Kaiser Art Gallery at Molloy College is pleased to present an exhibition on the work of Mary Ann Petry, former art faculty chairperson.

Mary Ann Petry was a member of the Molloy Art faculty from 1962 – 1973, and an Amityville Dominican from 1942-1974. She was a mentor to many students at Molloy – organizing art exhibits and encouraging students to enter art related professions. During her career Mary Ann’s work was exhibited regularly in Long Island and at regional institutions such as the Brooklyn Museum, Pratt Institute, Lasell College and Fordham University. An active member of several art organizations Mary Ann contributed her knowledge and talent to our community.

The exhibition will run from March 10 – April 25 and will feature prints – woodcuts, etchings and lithographs as well as paintings. The show is augmented by photographs of Mary Ann working in the art department and with students on campus.

There will be an opening reception on Thursday March 10, from 3:00pm – 6:00pm. The community is invited to join us.
