

Best Practices and Strategies for the Secondary Level Educator

Course Number: EDU 5900 Section: 46

(3 graduate credits, Tuition $900)

July 13-16, M-Th; 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m., RVC Campus

This class will be open to all secondary level educators and graduate students who are pursuing a degree in secondary education. All disciplines will be addressed through best teaching practices. The class will examine the use of technology (iPads, Chromebooks, smartphones) based on the SAMR model, QFT Protocol, the collaborative teaching model, interdisciplinary education, effective questioning, literacy skills, and character education. Administrators, and National Board Certified teachers will also come in as guest lectures to model effective instruction.

Instructors: Jason Manning and Todd Nussen have been nationally renowned pioneers in the teaching of the Big History Course. They are both National Board Certified teachers and for their work as Teacher Leaders for the Big History Project and the implementation of this interdisciplinary approach to learning, they were co-recipients of the Collaborators of Excellence Award by NYSEC in 2015. Jason was honored as the Empire State Teacher for Excellence in 2016. In 2017, Todd received the September 11th Teacher Award by the 9/11 Tribute Center for his work on global citizenship. They are both adjunct professors of education at Molloy and have presented at educational conferences across the country.
