

CMHC Annual Departmental Review Summary (Winter 2021)

On Wednesday, February 2, 2021, the CMHC faculty met to conduct a formalized annual departmental review. During this meeting, topics discussed included:

- Programmatic assessment procedures and results
- Course progression, offerings, and faculty course assignments
- Multicultural and diversity-related topics related to the student body, faculty and department staff, and course content
- Interdisciplinary projects

The results of this meeting produced the following considerations, changes, and/or modifications to the CMHC program:

1. In response to student feedback and faculty needs, the CMHC program is making active efforts to recruit and retain a stable, competent adjunct faculty pool.
2. In response to the needs of the profession and those we serve, the CMHC faculty are committed to ongoing integration of multicultural and social justice throughout the program curriculum.
3. In response to assessment results, the CMHC program will increase training of APA style writing throughout the curriculum.
4. In response to student and faculty feedback, the CMHC program is committed to reexamining the current course progression and faculty course assignments.
5. In response to feedback from personnel of cooperating agencies, the CMHC program will increase training on theoretical orientation and case conceptualization throughout the curriculum.
