13 Biennial Colloquium of Dominican Colleges and Universities

June 12 -15, 2014

"The thirst for justice is not separable from the thirst for truth, witness not separable from proclamation, solidarity with the poor not separable from solidarity with Christ; action on behalf of justice is not separable from the evolution of a contemplative consciousness"

...Goergen, D., 2013, Dominican Charism in American Higher Education

The Dominican Charism in American Higher Education (2013) is a guiding light for Dominican higher education. We are reminded of key practices essential to connecting contemplation with social justice. These themes include nurturing a contemplative spirit, promoting the arts, making connections, preaching justice, building community, cultivating diversity, inspiring compassion and promoting the common good.

The Molloy College Office of Mission Integration is proud to host this year's colloquium at their Rockville Centre campus. The College's Vice President for Mission Integration, Sister Dorothy Fitzgibbons, is the colloquium's liaison and can be reached via email at dfitzgibbons@molloy.edu or by telephone at 516.323.3221.

Keynote Speakers:

Gregory Heille, O.P., “The Compassionate Testimony of Missionary Disciples.”
Father Gregory has had a long and distinguished career at Aquinas Institute of Theology in St. Louis, MO. Father has been Academic Dean and Vice President since June 2007. He is also Promoter of Preaching for the Dominican Province of St. Albert the Great (U.S.A.)

We look forward to welcoming our Dominican brother to our campus.

Margaret Mayce, O.P., “Engaging the Powers that Be: Do They Really Have a Life of Their Own.”
Margaret is a Sister of St. Dominic, Amityville. As alumna of Molloy College, Margaret has served on her Congregation’s leadership team from 2001-2007 and on the national board of the Leadership Conference of Women Religious. Margaret has been a missionary in the Dominican Republic and the Director of the Spanish Apostolate for the Diocese of Rockville Centre, New York. Currently, Margaret serves as the NGO Representative for the U.S. Dominican Leadership Conference at the United Nations.

Toni Harris, O.P., “Engagement and Compassion: Rooted in Our Dominican Charism.”
Toni is a Dominican Sister of Sinsinawa who has served in leadership for a number of years. Most recently she was based in Rome, Italy and worked as the International Promoter for Justice and Peace for Dominican Sisters International from 2007 to 2013. Toni has also worked with Native Americans. She is currently enjoying a sabbatical year and we are delighted that she accepted our invitation.

Location
The Colloquium will be held at Molloy’s Rockville Centre campus located at 1000 Hempstead Avenue, Rockville Centre, New York 11571. Please see page 10 for directions to the campus and a campus map.

If you are traveling by plane, there are three airports on Long Island with commercial flights: John F. Kennedy (13 miles), LaGuardia (20 miles) and MacArthur (32 miles). We are making plans to have a shuttle bus available for airport pickups, but those plans are still in the formative stages. Please email Scott Salvato at: ssalvato@molloy.edu with your flight arrangements, including: airport, airline, flight numbers and arrival and departure times and we will get back to you regarding travel arrangements to and from the airports.

If you would like to make your own arrangements, please note that the closest airport to the campus is Kennedy Airport. It also has an airtrain that will connect you to the Jamaica Station of the Long Island Railroad. From the Jamaica Station you can go to the Rockville Centre train station. Information on the airtrain can be found at: http://web.mta.info/mta/airtrain.htm There is a taxi stand at the Rockville Centre railroad station and the phone number for the taxi service is: 516.536.3333 and the cost is $5 per person. You can also take the N16 bus from the train station which will let you off right in front of the campus. It’s about a 10 minute bus ride. Information on the bus route can be found at nicebus.com. The fare is $2.25 (coins or Metrocard).

You can always take a taxi from either Kennedy, LaGuardia or MacArthur airports, but it will be more expensive. Please also note that taxi drivers coming from Kennedy and LaGuardia airports are allowed to charge you round-trip fare for the one-way ride.
Accommodations: On Campus
All guests will be welcomed at our residence hall, Fitzgerald Hall, which opened in the fall 2011. This 154 bed residence hall offers single and double rooms each containing a bed, dresser, wardrobe or closet, desk and chair for each guest. The building is air-conditioned. Laundry facilities are located on the main floor. Lounge areas are located throughout the hall and computers are located on each floor. There is a television in the main lounge. Towels and linens will be provided (one set for the length of the conference). Each room is also equipped with computer ports and there is Wi-Fi throughout the building. Please see page 5 for additional information, including items that you may wish to bring and check-in procedures.

On campus housing is only available for participants who will be staying for the entire conference. Participants who are not staying for the entire Colloquium who are in need of accommodations should refer to the off campus hotel information below.

Accommodations: Off Campus Conference Hotels
If you would prefer to stay off-campus in a hotel please visit www.molloy.edu/colloquium for a list of hotels in the area.

Optional Friday Evening Outing
Join us on Friday, June 13th for the New York City Experience:

Enjoy a round trip bus ride into Times Square that includes dinner at the world-famous Carmine's before heading to see "Beautiful" or Phantom of the Opera" on Broadway! The coach bus will leave campus promptly at 3:45 p.m. Dinner reservations are at 5:30 p.m. Shows begin at 8:00 p.m. The cost is $90.00 per person. Please note that tickets to each show are on a first-come, first-basis and we expect this event to close-out. Please see page 7 for further information and to register.
