Concurrent Session 1M

Shared Trauma- We Are All In The Storm But In Different Boats

Virtual Only

This workshop will provide support to clinicians coping with shared trauma as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic while providing grief/bereavement counseling to their clients. We will explore different evidenced-based strategies and tools in reducing the clinician's shared trauma, compassion fatigue, and burnout.

Presenters:

Maria Lever, LMSW Clinical Supervisor Palliative Care Supportive Services, JASA

Heidi R. Weiss, LMSW, MHA, Healthcare Social Worker Jewish Programs, Westchester Jewish Community Services

Objectives:

- Define and identify what "Shared Trauma" is
- Provide evidence-based research and clinical case work examples
- Gain a greater understanding of both individual and workplace evidenced-based strategies and tools in reducing shared trauma, compassion fatigue and burnout

The workshop would be remote only.

* The session is approved for Social Work CE credit.
