Difficult to Serve Populations:
When Compassion Becomes a Challenge

This break out session will offer suggestions and practical strategies for working with families and patients who are challenging and have unrealistic expectations of what the palliative care or hospice program can provide. It will explore methods to maintain self-awareness and remain calm and compassionate when one's abilities are stretched.

Wanda V Youdelman RN, CHPN is a Nurse Manager for MJHS Hospice and Palliative care. Wanda has worked in hospice for 7 years, and has experience as a home care nurse. She holds certification in hospice and palliative care, is a member of Sigma Theta Tau Nursing honor society and is currently completing her Master Degree in nursing education at Mercy College. She can be reached at wyoudelm@mjhs.org.

Annette Feierman RN, MSN, CPHQ, CHPN is a Hospice Educator for MJHS Hospice & Palliative Care. Annette has worked in hospice for 11 years, with experience in community and facility settings. Annette's background includes traditional home care and quality improvement. She maintains certification in healthcare quality and in hospice and palliative nursing. Annette can be reached by email at afeierma@mjhs.org.