The 7th Annual Palliative Care Conference
FRIDAY, MAY 29, 2015

Molloy College, in collaboration with FEGS Health & Human Services and a network of community partners, is pleased to be offering its 7th Palliative Care Conference on Long Island. The conference will be held on Friday, May 29, 2015 from 8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. in the Madison Theater in the Public Square at Molloy’s Rockville Centre campus. The agenda for the day will include a Keynote Speaker, Margaret L. Campbell, PhD, RN, FPCN, Professor, College of Nursing at Wayne State University, a series of topics offered during two concurrent sessions, lunch and a Closing Session with Sheila Warnock, Co-Author, Speaker, Trainer on the Share The Care Group Caregiving Model.

This year’s conference will focus on the new developments in this growing and dynamic field. Experts from Medicine, Nursing, Pastoral Care, Child Life and Social Work will present the latest advancements in the fields of symptom management, ethics and communication, staff self-care and bereavement. Clinicians from across the continuum will engage participants in discussions about best practices and barriers to timely excellent palliative care in hospitals, nursing homes, and hospice organizations.

As always, the main objective of this year’s conference is for the participants to come away with new tools to provide professional, competent, compassionate care to patients and their families. At this year’s conference we will again provide clinicians from all disciplines with a wide variety of palliative care topics, presented by an outstanding group of speakers.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?
The intended audience includes: Physicians, Physician Assistants, Nurse Practitioners, Nurses, Social Workers, Clergy, Psychiatrists, Therapists (including physical, recreational and occupational), Dietitians, EMTs, teachers, students and volunteers.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Margaret L. Campbell, Ph.D., RN, FPCN, Professor, College of Nursing at Wayne State University

Dr. Campbell is a Professor – Research in the Office of Health Research in the College of Nursing at Wayne State University in Detroit. Dr. Campbell received her Bachelor’s and Master’s degrees in Nursing from Wayne State University and her PhD in Nursing from the University of Michigan. She has been a member of the Hospice and Palliative Nurses Association since 2001 and was the President in 2009.

She had an inpatient palliative care clinical practice for more than 25 years before obtaining a research faculty appointment. Dr. Campbell conducts clinical research to assess and treat dyspnea among patients with advanced disease and the end of life. She developed the Respiratory Distress Observation Scale (RDOS), the only known valid and reliable tool for measuring respiratory distress when the patient cannot self-report dyspnea. She has conducted dyspnea intervention studies using the RDOS and has had NIH and foundation funding.

Her opening session topic will be on: Why I Remain “Downstream” When the Field is Heading “Upstream”.

CLOSING SESSION SPEAKER: Sheila Warnock, Co-Author, Speaker, Trainer on the Share The Care Group Caregiving Model.

Sheila Warnock, never planned to be a pioneer in reinventing caregiving for the 21st century. Yet after a series of personal caregiving experiences she made the decision in 2003 to abandon her advertising career to establish a non-profit organization. Sheila teaches a grassroots model/philosophy known as Share The Care™ that not only provides a compassionate solution for all involved but also offers a proven option for a growing global crisis.

Sheila has personally trained over 1,200 health professionals in 11 states and SW Ontario and introduced STC to thousands more in 16 states where it has been adopted by individuals, hospices, health organizations, community groups, faith communities and hospitals. Over 30,000 Share The Care books that she co-authored have guided hundreds of thousands of people to create and maintain groups in 48 states and 13 countries. (Bookrights are owned by ShareTheCare®)

She has been the recipient of many awards including: 2011 L’Oreal Paris Women of Worth Honoree, a 2012 Local Lady Godiva Honoree, and in 2013 she received a Daily Point of Light Award for her dedication to service, and a Community Service Award from Caregivers Outreach Ministry Empowerment.

Her closing session topic will be on: A Win Win Option For The Caregiving Crisis: SHARE THE CARE™
