ADP Employment Verification, powered by The Work Number® from Equifax, securely and instantly provides automated income and employment verifications...to keep life moving for employees!

-  Buying a home or refinancing?
-  Renting a property?
-  Buying a vehicle?
-  Applying for a loan or credit?
-  Qualifying for government benefits?

If the answer to any of these is yes, The Work Number can streamline the employment and income confirmation process for employees. The Work Number also answers requests for other purposes including a review of your account, confirming continued qualification for government benefits and enforcement of obligations. If the lender or agency you applied with asks for proof of your employment or income information, direct them to TheWorkNumber.com
