EMERGENCY ACTION PLAN

HOSTILE INTRUDER RESPONSE

COLLEGE GROUNDS

When a hostile person is actively causing or threatening death or serious bodily injury on the College grounds, Public Safety recommend consideration of the following options for those caught in exposes locations.

Running
If you thing you can safely get away by running, then do so. If you decide to run, Do not run in a straight line. Attempt to keep objects between you and the hostile person. Use trees, vehicles and other objects to block you from the view of the intruder. When away from the immediate area of danger, summon help anyway you can and warn others.

Hiding
If you decide to hide, make sure the hiding place is secure and not obvious.

Playing dead
If the person is causing death or serious physical injury to others and you are unable to run or hide you may choose to play dead if other victims are around you.

Fighting
Your last option if you are caught in an open area may be to fight back.

This is dangerous, but depending on your situation, this could be your last Option.

If you are caught by the intruder and are not going to fight back, obey all commands and don’t look the intruder in the eyes.

Once the police arrive, obey all commands. This may involve being handcuffed or keeping your hands in the air. This is done for safety reasons and once circumstances are evaluated by the police, they will give you further directions.
