Dear Friends,

Once again the 2013 Molloy College Gala brings together proud and prominent members of the campus community to honor a distinguished group of award recipients. Tonight, a brilliant spotlight illuminates the careers and contributions of “Lifetime Achievement Award” honorees Buddy and Chris Haunss, “Community Leadership Award” recipient Joan Hope MacNaughton and the “Distinguished Alumni Award” designee Carole M. Gerrity, graduate of the Molloy College Class of 1960.

This evening’s event will provide invaluable support to the college scholarship program. Improving and increasing scholarship opportunities will allow more and more students to enjoy a rewarding collegiate experience on the Molloy campus.

Molloy College is enjoying a period of great growth and development. Physically and scholastically the campus is broadening horizons and expanding resources. Students who partake of a Molloy education are being challenged by an engaging curriculum that imparts knowledge, refines skills and builds confidence.

Striding purposely towards a bright future the college is brilliantly led by President Drew Bogner Ph. D., and the school’s Board of Trustees. A gifted faculty, comprised of scholars who both educate and mentor, provides an invaluable resource for the student body. A hometown college with a nation-wide reputation, Molloy provides a value-centered, multidimensional liberal arts education.

Again, my sincerest congratulations to Molloy College and this evening’s honorees, organizers and attendees. Personally, my respect for this campus and this student body is ever increasing as the college continues to aspire to the highest educational goals and sincerest community involvements. Best wishes to you all.

Sincerely,
