

18th Biennial Colloquium of Dominican Colleges and Universities

VERITAS

In the Modern World

We are honored to announce that Molloy University will host the 18th Biennial Colloquium of Dominican Colleges and Universities from Monday, June 8, through Thursday, June 11, 2026. This year's theme, "Veritas in the Modern World," invites scholars and leaders from Dominican institutions nationwide to explore the enduring pursuit of truth in dialogue with the challenges and hopes of our time. In an era of rapid change and cultural diversity, this gathering will provide a vital space for reflection, collaboration, and inspiration rooted in the Dominican mission.

Your sponsorship is essential to the success of this transformative event. By partnering with us, you will help create a mission-centered experience for participants through keynote presentations, panel discussions, and networking opportunities that foster intellectual growth and community engagement. Sponsorship contributions will directly support program development, hospitality, and resources that ensure a welcoming and impactful colloquium for all attendees.

Your support demonstrates a shared commitment to advancing higher education, promoting dialogue, and sustaining the Dominican tradition of seeking truth with integrity, courage, and hope. Together, we can make this colloquium a memorable and meaningful experience for every participant.

In Truth,

Catherine Tully Muscente
Executive Director, Dominican Higher Education Council

Donald "DJ" Mitchell, Jr., Ph.D.
