

JUNE 8-11, 2026
MOLLOY UNIVERSITY
ROCKVILLE CENTRE, NEW YORK

The Dominican Higher Education Council Presents

The 18th Biennial Colloquium of Dominican Colleges and Universities encourages Dominican higher education colleagues to engage the enduring Dominican pursuit of Veritas—truth in dialogue with the challenges and hopes of the modern world. In an era marked by rapid change, cultural pluralism, and contested understandings of truth, we gather to reflect on how our Dominican mission equips us to seek truth with integrity, courage, and hope.

FEATURED SESSIONS

Opening Keynote: Veritas in the Modern World

Sr. Colleen Mary Mallon, OP, PhD

Dominican Sisters of Mission San Jose

June 9th at 9:15 am

Plenary I: Veritas at the Border: Immigration, Truth, and the Dominican Commitment to Justice

José Caledón

Public Policy and Community Leader

Chandler Patton Miranda, PhD

Assistant Professor of Education, Molloy University

Sr. Mary Nolan, OP

Sisters of St. Dominic of Amityville

June 9th at 3:15 pm

Plenary II: Living Veritas: Reflections on A Vision in Service of Truth

Sr. Jennifer Schaaf, OP, DMin

Vice President for Mission and Ministry, Dominican University New York

Sr. Judith Schaefer, OP, PhD

Sinsinawa Dominicans

Charles Zola, PhD

Associate Professor of Philosophy, Director of the Catholic and Dominican Institute, and Assistant Vice President for Mission, Mount Saint Mary College

June 10th at 9:15 am

Zoom links will be available for the featured sessions to include colleagues who cannot attend the Colloquium in person.

REGISTER NOW

Questions?

Contact us at mi@molloy.edu

The 18th Biennial Colloquium of Dominican Colleges and Universities

VERITAS

In the Modern World

Sr. Colleen Mary Mallon, OP, PhD

José Caledón

Sr. Jennifer Schaaf,
OP, DMin

Chandler Patton Miranda,
PhD

Sr. Judith Schaefer,
OP, PhD

Sr. Mary Nolan, OP

Charles Zola, PhD