

Elder Law LGL2100

As we are living (and working) longer, we will look at the changing role of older persons today. Introduction to topics in the field of Elder law, including: advance planning for legal matters; Medicare, Medicaid and supplemental health insurance; long term care and various types of nursing home; funeral planning; issues to consider when working with the elderly and with family members.

1 Credit