EDU 5900-Course Title: Character in Curriculum (3 credits)

Semester Year- Fall, 2026

Instructor: Lisa Lampert

Email: LRNulty@Gmail.com

Office hours: 9am-5pm

Course Description:

As student advocates and educators, we know our students need to feel successful academically, socially, and emotionally. Social-Emotional Learning and Character Education are as important to your curriculum as English Language Arts. With our growing curriculums and rigorous expectations, how do we ensure our students are receiving a social-emotional curriculum? Throughout this course, we will explore ways we can integrate Social Emotional Learning and Character Education into your already effective curriculum. Together, we will share and discuss lesson plans you are already teaching and add those vital social-emotional components. We will work together to create classroom environments where students feel confident enough to become risk-takers and hope-creators.

Shared Vision

The Molloy University Teacher Education faculty has derived its vision for the exemplary teacher from the University's mission statement, the four pillars of the Dominican tradition, comments and input from the Professional Education Unit's Advisory Board and degree candidates as well as numerous faculty discussions rooted in the department's knowledge base which undergirds the initial and advanced programs' curriculum, pedagogy, and values.

The teaching professionals who complete Molloy's teacher preparation programs are distinguished by their ability to exemplify and promote core values in their own teaching. These values include:

Belief that all children can learn

Learner-centered and value-centered curriculum and pedagogy

Ethics and spirituality

Intellectual curiosity

Independence and risk-taking, while promoting collective identity and responsibility

Diversity, multiculturalism, and pluralism, including divergent thinking

Passion for teaching

Commitment to students and their communities

Civic responsibility through the promotion of social justice and interdependence

Commitment to democracy

Course Objectives:

1. Students will discuss why social and emotional learning is essential for students. Students will learn more about the critical role that social and emotional learning plays in promoting student success.
