

10:15 a.m. - 11:45 a.m.

Concurrent Session 1E

Wounds at the End of Life

In-person

Objectives:

- 1.The learner will identify differences between palliative care and hospice care;
- 2.The learner will be able to distinguish goals in wound management in Palliative/Hospice care
- 3.The learner will be able to Identify different types of palliative wounds.

Presenters:

Deborah Walker MA, ANP-BC, ACHPN is a certified advanced practice hospice and palliative nurse who has been working with Northwell Hospice Care Network for the last 8 years in the medical department and the education department. She is the founder of the Northwell Health Hospice Care Network Skincare team.

Dorothy Michaels MSN, AGNP-BC, WOCN-C specializes in traumatic, chronic, palliative and end of life wound care for nearly 10 years. She serves as the co-chair of the Northwell Health System Pressure Injury taskforce and a member of the Northwell Health Hospice Care Network Skincare team.

Diana Kovarik BSN, RN, WOCN-C has worked for Northwell Health Hospice Care Network for the last 6 years in various capacities as RN case manager, preceptor, as well as, covering team manager. She has recently transitioned as the Wound care Specialist for the Northwell Health Hospice Care Network Skincare team.

-

-

-

-