

Tutoring Services FAQ'S

Office Hours are Monday-Friday, 9:00 AM-5:00 PM

MOLLOY UNIVERSITY

- What subjects are available through Tutoring Services?

We assist in a variety of subjects, including Math, Science, Nursing (excluding 100-level courses), SLP, Accounting, and Modern Languages.

- Is the tutoring offered individually or in a group setting?

Sessions are available in one-to-one or group settings. There are no guarantees of a 1:1 session.

- How many subjects can students apply for during a semester?

Students can receive weekly tutoring in up to 2 subjects per semester for one hour each. An additional hour may be requested and is based on availability.

- Where does the tutoring take place?

In-person meeting places are arranged between the tutor and the student before the session is held. Currently, most sessions are conducted online.

- How is tutoring assigned?

Students may self-select available tutor slots as displayed on TracCloud after entering their course information.

- Is there an attendance policy?

Yes. If a student is absent 2 times, tutoring will be suspended. It is in the student's best interest to call the tutor in advance with a valid reason or contact the Tutoring office if they cannot reach the tutor.

- Who are the tutors?

There are three categories: Peer: current students who received a B+ in the course they have signed up to tutor. Graduate: have undergraduate degrees in the discipline. Professional: active, semi-retired, or retired.

- Do you offer additional types of academic support?

Yes, we offer academic coaching to help students develop essential skills such as time management, note-taking strategies, study strategies, test-taking techniques, and effective textbook reading. Additionally, we conduct special review sessions to prepare students for midterms and final exams.

- What are the hours that tutoring is available?

Tutoring is available Monday through Friday from 9:00 AM to 8:00 PM, and on weekends from 10:00 AM to 6:00 PM.
