Confidential Resources

Molloy understands that complainants may wish to talk about the incident with the assurance that the discussion will be confidential. Even if a person does not ask for confidentiality, these matters are considered private and are shared with a limited number of employees who have a “need to know” and are responsible for the College’s response, including taking appropriate steps to respond to the incident, to support complainants, respondents, and witnesses, and to resolve the matter promptly and fairly. To the extent practicable and appropriate under the circumstances, investigatory and resolution procedures, including appeal procedures, shall be held in confidence to reasonably insure the privacy of the parties concerned and to offer as much protection as reasonably possible to the parties involved.

Regarding Drugs and Alcohol:

The health and safety of every student at the College is of utmost importance. The College recognizes that students who have been drinking and/or using drugs (whether such use is voluntary or involuntary) at the time that violence, including but not limited to domestic violence, dating violence, stalking or sexual assault occurs may be hesitant to report such incidents due to fear of potential consequences for their own conduct. The College strongly encourages students to report domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault to College officials. A bystander acting in good faith or Reporting Individual acting in good faith that discloses any incident of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault to College officials or law enforcement will be not be subject to discipline pursuant to the procedure outlined in the Student Handbook for violations of alcohol and/or drug use policies occurring at or near the time of the domestic violence, dating violence, stalking or sexual assault.
