1. Request to see student in a private space that is safe for the student and you

- Briefly acknowledge your observations (e.g. change in behavior)
- Express your concern directly and honestly
- Disclose that you cannot guarantee complete confidentiality
- Listen carefully, and acknowledge the student's pain
- If you observe any evidence of suicidal thinking, ask directly "Are you thinking of killing yourself?"
- If student denies current suicidal thinking, refer student to available resources (please see below)
- Contact Student Counseling Center (516) 323-3484 to report your informal referral and obtain further consultation, if needed
- If student responds that they are currently experiencing suicidal thinking, but are NOT in imminent danger, do not leave the student alone AND contact Student Counseling Center (516) 323-3484 for immediate consult
- If counselor is not available, contact Public Safety (516) 323-3500 and they will connect you with a trained administrator on-call

2. Follow-up with student on referral a few days to one week following initial contact
